

Ch Valcombe, 5 Puits 2014 Ventoux

Score 15.5+/20

Cask sample of a new wine made from 2 ha of vines owned by Keira Knightley and James Righton, who are involved with the winemaking at Valcombe. (Fruit used to go to the local co-op.)

Bright cherry red. Fresh, frank, rather 'cool' fruit. A bit less intense than Valcombe's own but very true to Ventoux. Easy and forward with a nice peppery note on the end. It reminds me rather of a good cru Beaujolais. It may yet take on more flesh. Though fleshiness is not one of the actor-vigneronne's most noted attributes.
